
Coefficients are read from saved full-range summaries, not computed from median curves. All 20 planned order curves per shape are accounted for.

No p-values or confidence intervals: orders share the same scene. These results concern the two 15 km stimuli, not vectoring in general.